TEXAS RESORT PROVIDES A MEMORIAL DAY ESCAPE THAT DOESN'T REQUIRE AN EXTENSIVE BUDGET

THE WOODLANDS, TX (May 5, 2008) . . . Stay close to home, yet worlds away this Memorial Day weekend at The Woodlands Resort where overnight accommodations start at just $149! With all the elaborate amenities expected at a family-friendly resort, yet more affordable than other Texas properties, you'll have plenty to splurge on a spa treatment or perhaps a round of golf on one of the property's two championship courses.

There are plenty of fun activities at the Forest Oasis Waterscape™ to keep the kids busy for hours. Race down "Morgan's Run," a 30-foot water slide or explore "Crescent Bay," an underwater marine mural. Kids can participate in the underwater scavenger hunt and receive a prize! Puffy's Sprayground™, with its waterspouts and fountains amuses toddlers while adults relax under a Forest Waterfall in the lagoon-style pool. Live music, Muffie the Clown, a balloon artist and organized games will entertain adults and kids alike.

If you must come up for air, enjoy build your own S'mores on Friday and Saturday nights and a Dive-In Movie where families can lounge poolside and watch their favorite family movies.

Travelers can take advantage of the Resort's many packages which offer inclusions from golf to spa to shopping. The Destination: Fun package, starting at $149 per night, includes a full breakfast for two, use of the Forest Oasis Waterscape, plus unlimited access to the Fitness Center, Sauna, Eucalyptus Steam Room and Whirlpool.
